Final Total on March of Dimes Drive Revealed

Roy I. Kufalk, Chairman, Reports Total of $573.19 Collected in Drive

Roy I. Kufalk, local March of Dimes chairman, reported today that the final total of moneys collected to combat Polio in Antioch township was $573.19, much more than the amount reached in drives held here during the past seven years. It was thought that attacks of the dread disease in the township accounted for the greatly increased total.

A letter which was submitted with the money collected to Joseph P. Daley, county chairman follows: Mr. Joseph P. Daley, Chairman, March of Dimes, Waukegan, Ill.

Dear Joe: Please find enclosed final report and checks totalling $271.78 to be added to a previous remittance of $301.41 which will add up to $573.19 a sum which was most pleasing to me from this community. Of course it does not equal that amount which was expended here last summer but a gratifying increase over last year's receipts.

Both theatres here were most cooperative, as was our local paper, The Antioch News who gave considerable space in reading material. Here is hoping that the rest of the county showed at least the same interest as here.

Best wishes to you for your untiring efforts in behalf of this worthy cause.

Sincerely yours,
Roy I. Kufalk

Details Received of Death of Mrs. Nugent

Many local friends of Mrs. Dan Nugent of Norwood Park, formerly of Antioch township, attended her funeral Friday afternoon in Edison Park, Ill.

Mrs. Nugent's last visit at Antioch was two weeks ago when she came to see her brother, Arthur. She then said she and her husband were planning a trip to Arizona. She had been regaining her health following the shock of her mother's death, which occurred last July in Colorado.

The corner's inquest revealed that her death was due to accidental cause. On Tuesday afternoon after a trip to the dentist she drove her car into the garage, and got out to close the doors. Apparently she tripped and fell striking her head on the running board of the car and losing consciousness. The car motor was still running and death resulted from carbon-monoxide poisoning.

Bruises on her body gave positive evidence that the fall was not the result of the fumes.

Mrs. Frank Dahms Dies Of Injuries Received In Automobile Accident

Mrs. Frank Dahms of Lake Marie, died Sunday, Feb. 9 at 5 a. m. in Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines, as the result of injuries received when the automobile in which she and her husband were riding crashed into a snowbank and tree in avoiding a collision with another car.

Her death was due to multiple rib fractures a coroner's inquest revealed.

Mr. Dahms, himself, was critically injured in the accident. He told state police that the driver of the other car was zig-zagging on the road and he was forced to turn sharply to avoid a collision. He suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries.

The accident occurred on the River road, two miles north of Des Plaines. They had attended a wedding in Chicago and were on their way home at the time.

Alvina Dahms was born at Rio Creek, Wis., Feb. 7, 1886, and had been a resident of Maywood 20 years before coming to Lake Marie to take up permanent residence six years ago. Her summers were spent at the lake before 1941.

Besides the husband, Mrs. Dahms is survived by a brother, Lewis Hoppe of Carnot, Wis.

Judge Hulse Addresses Lake Villa Men's Club on Duties of His Court

Court Must Protect Public Against Crimes But Must Protect Juveniles

Judge Minor Hulse of the County Court of Lake County emphasized the humanitarian side of his work in explaining the duties of the county court before the Lake Villa Community Men's club Tuesday evening.

He discussed the problems of dealing with adoption of children, making findings in insanity cases, and dealing with the delinquent child. He likewise explained the court's duty toward the dependent child.

The court has a responsibility to protect the public against the crimes of the delinquent child while at the same time avoiding putting any stigma on the boy or girl involved. Judge Hulse told club members.

He said he recently inspected the St. Charles School for Boys and the school is not doing as badly as pictured, but is doing good work.

School Does Good Work
"Constructive work is being done at St. Charles which should not be judged by the unfavorable publicity of a few cases," he said.

Judge Hulse spoke favorably of the Big Brother movement in Lake county and elsewhere in looking after parolees. He said it would be advisable to have an efficient probation and juvenile court staff of assistants in addition to those now serving to keep track of wards of the court, and thought that trained officials of this nature would be a good investment for the county sometime in the future.

Likes Juvenile Work
The Waukegan judge said if he had his choice he would like to devote all of his time to the juvenile side of his present work.

Judge Hulse spoke following a dinner served by the Women's Society of Christian service of Lake Villa, at the school gymnasium.

Following the talk motion pictures were shown. They included a sports review, an events review of 1946, and a picture on fishing.

Antioch World War I Vet Carried Shrapnel 28 Years

He was wounded the night of Oct. 14, 1918 while with his outfit, 318th Engineers in storming and capturing the town of Belleau Woods in France. He carried the piece of steel 28 years which said the publication "is sort of a record for hoarding steel, and with steel so scarce these days."

Income Tax Collector Warns Public Against Confusion on New Laws

Nigel D. Campbell, collector of internal revenue, cautioned taxpayers today not to confuse pending tax legislation in Congress with the 1946 income tax returns which must be filed not later than March 15 by every person who had $500.00 or more income last year.

The collector pointed out that, if any changes are made in the tax laws, the changes will apply only to 1947, and therefore, will not alter in any way the filing of last year's return due by March 15.

For 1946, a return is required by March 15 from every person who had $500.00 or more income, regardless of all other circumstances (except, of course, members of the armed forces still overseas). Returns are required even though part or all the tax has been paid by withholding.

Firemen Plan Dance to Raise Money to Finance Convention Here May 26

Called to Maple Inn Sunday To Extinguish Blaze in Private Garage

Plans for a dance through which they expect to raise money to finance the county firemen's convention here May 26, were made by members of the Antioch fire department Tuesday evening.

Murphy Cunningham was appointed chairman of the committee to plan the event, the date of which has not as yet been set.

The department had one call during the past week. A run was made to Maple Inn, a mile and a half north of the state line where a garage caught fire from an oil stove. About half of the garage was destroyed.

Chief Edgar Simonsen said the blaze had a good start when the department arrived and was pleased that his department was able to confine the blaze to such a small area, for the garage was next to the Inn and living quarters and no damage was done to them.

The Antioch men were called out in the zero weather at 1:30 a. m. Sunday.

What is "Fireproof?"

The public has a dangerously wrong concept of what the word "fireproof," as applied to hotels and public buildings, means. That was the gist of expert comment made at the recent National Conference on Hotel Safety in Philadelphia.

A good many people seem to think that "fireproof" means a structure whose interior and exterior are immune to really serious damage by fire. But as a National Fire Protection Association member pointed out, "a fireproof building by definition is one where the structure will remain intact after a burn-out of its contents." Under this definition, a stove or a furnace is a perfect example of fireproof construction. The contents may be destroyed, but the basic structure remains intact.

The public's interest lies in a type of construction which, whether it is called "fireproof" or not, will give maximum protection to occupants against death and injury by fire. And here is where building codes have lagged woefully behind. A recent issue of Life illustrates safe versus unsafe construction, with some vivid drawings. In the safe hotel or similar building, compartments and fire walls limit the area where fire can travel. A blaze might shoot up an air shaft but it would then quickly burn out for lack of fuel. In the unsafe structure, on the other hand, fire roars along natural flues made by open stair wells and elevator shafts. Open doors and transoms permit it to enter rooms unchecked. And death by burning, gas, and suffocation follows.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters, 85 John Street, New York City, offers to communities a model building code which is designed to give the maximum possible protection to the public. Codes such as this, rigorously enforced, and made retroactive in the case of existing public buildings, should become the law in every city and town in the nation.

The Changing Times

During the war, and for some time after it ended, retail stores had to take whatever goods were offered them, even when prices were high and quality was low. Consumers had to be content with smaller and poorer stocks to choose from. This was a situation that couldn't be helped—it was the certain consequence of war's insatiable demands on our producing machine.

Now, however, times seem to be rapidly changing—and for the better. Business papers and trade journals report that buyers for retail stores are casting jaundiced eyes on sub-standard merchandise. They are questioning prices which seem out of line. They know that the consumers will again demand the best possible product for the least possible price—and they are out to meet that demand.

This certainly does not mean that prices are going to crack wide open—the pressures are still inflationary in many cases. But it does indicate that there is going to be less and less shoddy merchandise—and more and more goods which offer maximum and dependable value in their price brackets. And, by the same token, store stocks are once more being built up to approximations of pre-war abundance and selection.

This is retailing's traditional service to the nation. Store operators are as pleased as anyone else to see the economy of scarcity gradually disappear.

The Future of Coal

When the nation's soft coal mines were first taken over by the government, it was generally understood that the move was in the nature of a formality, and that the mines would soon be returned to their owners. However, this "temporary socialization" of one of the nation's most important natural resources seems to have acquired a semi-permanency. As a result, the public, no less than the mine owners, is entitled to know just what the government intends to do.

It is sometimes argued that governmental control is necessary to cope with the mine labor problem. But the principal miners' union has defied the government as brazenly as it has the private operators. As England is proving now, socialism is not the magical solution to a country's economic ills—it actually produces more problems than it can begin to solve.

Returning the mines to their owners should not be longer delayed. The American people have never sanctioned socialization of the industry. Every evidence points to the fact that the people are strongly opposed to the further extension of governmental powers—that was the outstanding lesson of last November's elections.

The mine labor problem can only be solved under equitable laws, which will abolish industry-wide bargaining, force the union to accept responsibilities commensurate with its powers, and restate the principle of arbitration between worker and employer. So long as government dominates the coal industry, the future of the industry, on which the nation is dependent, will remain in a state of confusion.

Lake Villa School Notes

Scout week is being observed in Lake Villa by holding a Court of Honor Wednesday evening, Feb. 12, at 8 p. m. at the school gym. This is a colorful ceremony and should be attended by the public. This is the one way we can show our troop that we are interested in the work they are doing.

Rail Safety
In 1867 Thomas S. Hall invented the automatic electric block system; the first installation being on the New York and Harlem railroad. The wheels of the locomotive strike a lever pivoted to the rail and this in turn sets the signal at danger until the train is out of the block.

Watering Houseplants
Don't water houseplants too often the experts say. Never just wet the surface of the soil. Apply enough water so all the soil in the pot is saturated and water drips from the drainage hole in the pot. A plant needs water when tapping on the side of the pot makes a hollow sound.

University Announces 1947 Seed Corn Winner From Among 420 Entries

Pioneer Hybrid Corn produced the highest yield in the 1946 Illinois Official Corn Performance test conducted by the University of Illinois. Results were published and released in the University bulletin No. 521 at the Farm and Home week on Jan. 29. Forty-four companies competing with a total of 420 entries.

These tests have been carried on for a number of years by the University in order to give the farmers performance data, from an impartial source, on many different varieties of seed corn sold in Illinois.

Past records show that a Pioneer hybrid produced the highest 5 year average yield and the highest yield ever recorded in the Illinois Official Corn Performance test.

Sealskins From Pribilofs

Loveller Than Ever Before

WASHINGTON. — Milady's seal-skins will be lovelier than ever this season because the war by-passed the Pribilofs.

Philip B. Fouke, head of the St. Louis concern which processes and sells 90 per cent of the world's seal-skins, said the government's 1946 catch is "the loveliest fur ever."

The harvest this year was 4,523 skins, which will make fewer than 10,000 coats.

Last year's skins brought an average of $87 each.

British Financier Elected

Head of the World Bank

WASHINGTON. — Hugh Dalton, British chancellor of the exchequer, was unanimously elected chairman of the joint boards of governors of the 42nd World bank and the 43rd International Monetary fund.

The World bank admitted Italy to membership and borrowing privileges, along with Turkey, Syria and Lebanon.

Approving every move of the International Monetary fund, governors of the World bank voted to accept Italy into the $7,670,000,000 institution with only one dissent—that of Yugoslavia.

Dilute Bleach

If you use a bleach when you wash your towels, be sure to dilute it. If you use too strong a bleach, it will weaken the fabric. One good way to bleach towels is to dry them in the sunshine, but be sure you bring them in as soon as they are dry. Don't let them whip about the wind too long, since the wind may loosen the yarn at the corners of the hem, and cause them to fray. If the selvedge wears out, take several rows of stitches along the edge. This will check the fraying and it will strengthen the edge and make the towel wear longer.

Hard to Catch

The African rhinoceros has two horns while the Indian variety has only one, says Nature magazine. There are plenty of them still free and ramping about in the wild but it is not easy to catch them alive. They have been often seen from the railway which runs from Dar es Salaam to Lake Tanganyika and occasionally a rhinoceros has charged an engine.

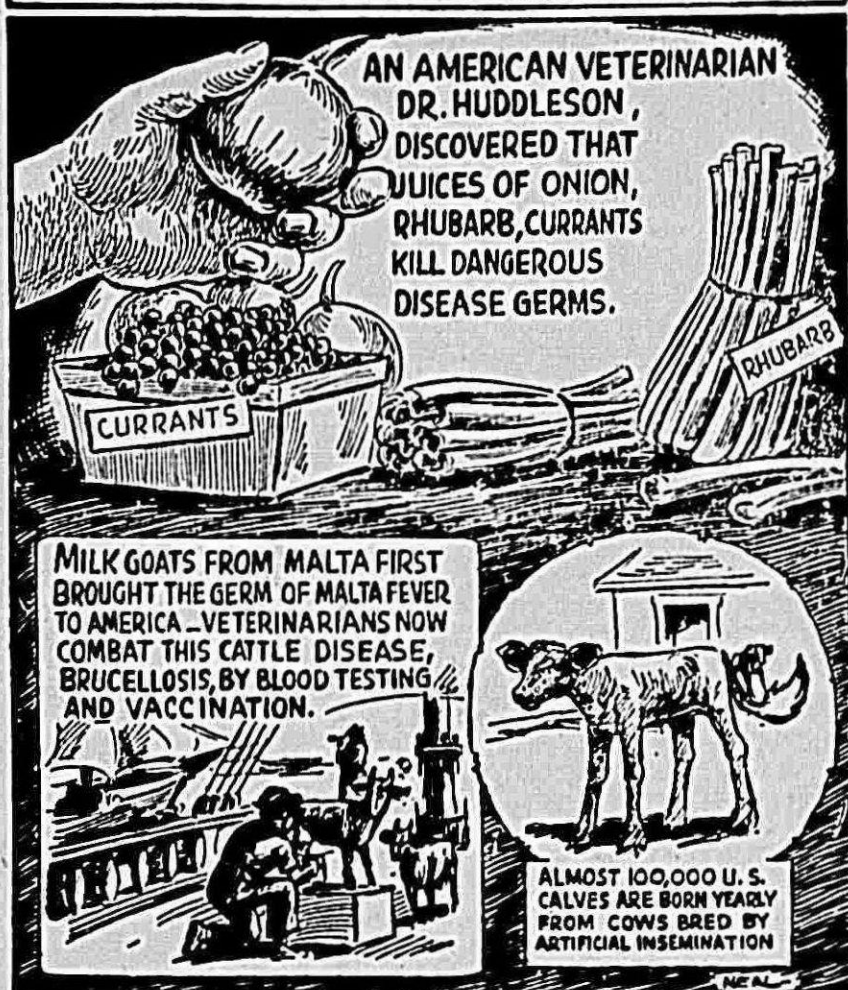

Uncle Sam Says

Nice easy chair you have, friend. This is real comfort. I'll bet you are one of my nephews whose family life rests on a firm foundation of United States Savings Bonds. Every banker, every merchant, every spiritual leader in this community will tell you that I'm right. The first material possession any right-thinking, right-acting citizen acquires is savings. United States Savings Bonds are safe savings which grow in amount of $4 for every $3 invested at the end of ten years.

HOG CHOLERA VIRUS
MOST POTENT KILLER

Sometimes the question is asked—
"What is the most powerful, killing

A typical case of hog cholera.

livestock disease agent known to modern science?"

There is just one answer—the virus of hog cholera. Recent studies show that as little as ONE MILLIONTH of a cubic centimeter of hog cholera virus can easily kill a pig. A fly, flitting from one farm to another, can carry on its legs enough of this powerful virus to start an outbreak of cholera in a drove of susceptible hogs.

These are some of the reasons why hog cholera today remains the No. 1 swine killer in America, causing losses of $20,000,000 to $60,000,000 per year. These losses could be prevented if all farmers had their pigs vaccinated against cholera around weaning time. But, unfortunately, there are always some swine raisers who are inclined to "take a chance." And it is these unprotected herds which are the first victims of cholera every year, and which remain in the community as centers of infection and sources of cholera danger to other droves of swine.

The common symptoms of hog cholera include a tendency on the part of the sick animals to remain in the house, to burrow under bedding, to pile up, weakness or partial paralysis, and persistent scour. Often one or two hogs will die, and then it will be several days before the remainder of the herd will begin to show symptoms. If any of the above symptoms appear, a prompt veterinary diagnosis should be obtained, because cholera often resembles other swine diseases, and a correct diagnosis is the most important factor toward proper control measures.

BLUEGRASS AND HORSES

Bluegrass, specially nourishing for live stock and horses, has an important bearing on the prosperity of Kentucky. More than $30 million is invested in horse farms and millions more in the blooded animals. Bluegrass contributes to improved breeds of cattle. Microwave Properties Microwaves recently were discovered to have properties similar to those of light waves and infra-red rays. They can be focused for signaling purposes on a distant receiving station, much as light waves are focused by a searchlight. For short distances, they are sometimes guided through hollow metal tubes.

WORSE THAN LIGHTNING—
and they strike as quickly!

Spattering Fat

To keep fat from spattering when meat is fried, sprinkle a little salt in the fat.

Best Dishwashing

To get the best results in dishwashing use sufficient soap suds and hot water, and use clean dishcloths and towels each time. Drying is not necessary for the china if you rinse and stack to drain. Metal ware must be carefully dried to prevent rust and streaks.

Tree Growth

Pines do not grow as fast as Cottonwood or Chinese elm, but if given good care make fairly rapid growth once they are well established. With good care pines will average a foot or more growth in height per year. It is not uncommon for pines to grow to a height of 10 or 12 feet in ten years or to a height of 20 feet or more in 20 years. The pines are hardy and will last a long time.

Worshipped Cabbage

Cabbage has been a popular vegetable ever since 2000 B. C. when it was said to have been worshipped by the Egyptians.

Book Covers

To keep leather book covers soft and pliable, rub in a little lanolin or castor oil with your hands, especially along the back binding.

Detergents Clean Well

In washing all-wool white blankets, detergents proved better than soap. Blankets were laundered in both hard and soft water by hand and machine. Blankets made of 75 per cent wool and 25 per cent cotton washed cleaner with soap.

Farmers Court Death

In 1945, there were more accidental deaths of workers in agriculture than in any other industry. However, there were more deaths of farm residents from home accidents than from any other type of accident. Off the farm, there were more deaths of farm residents in motor vehicle accidents than from all other types of accidents.

Old Fur

Old fur can be cleaned, dyed and glazed at home, and may be the makings of a pair of warm winter cuffs or mittens. Sew with close overhand stitches, using a fine needle so you'll make only small holes in the material. Always cut through the pelt from the skin side, using a razor blade, since shears will cut the fur.

Better Paint Jobs

Not so long ago all automobiles were painted by hand and brush. The custom job had 24 to 30 coats of paint and varnish, laboriously hand applied, rubbed and polished. Most cars today get and need only one or two coats of enamel or lacquer which is sprayed on and dried in a fraction of the time and at a fraction of the cost.

Whopping Hair-do

Queen Marie Antoinette's famous hairdresser, Leonard, had to mount a step-ladder to dress her headpiece, so high had fantastic hairstyle become. These were the days when ladies concealed mouse-traps inside their hair-do's to catch mice! So seldom did they wash their hair that all kinds of perfumes and cosmetics were needed to make them look presentable.

Sequoits Tip Northbrook But Lose to Palatine; Play Barrington Next

After dropping a poor game to Palatine last Friday night the Antioch Sequoits came back strong Tuesday evening and beat Northbrook by a score of 53 to 32.

Tomorrow night the Sequoits will play Barrington there and will again play at home on Tuesday against Warren Township. The Freshmen will play Warren here on Monday evening.

Both Palatine teams won here last week. The varsity took the Sequoits to the tune of 37 to 27 and the Jayvees won from the local team 40 to 32. Both visiting teams led through out.

It was a better brand of ball that the Sequoits put up Tuesday night. The varsity took a decided lead at the start and never was in the least danger. The score at the half was 29 to 15 and despite the fact that three local men went out on fouls, the substitutes kept up the bombardment of the baskets during the second half. It was a big night for Osinbaugh with eight field goals and five fouls for a total of 21 points. Fields was second high for Antioch with 13 points.

The Jayvees lost a hard fought battle to Northbrook by a 44 to 43
